WEEKLY. ar mail books are kept by postomees, and not by

To Contributors and Corresponden To Contributors and Correspondents. We solicit letters and communications upon subjects of general interest, but such must always be accompanied by the name and address of the writer, as a guarantee of his good faith and responsibility. No notice can be taken of anonymous communications for publication must be written on one side of the page only, and, with all other matters connected with the editorial department, thould be addressed: To THE EDITOR OF THE AFFAL, Memphis, Tenn. Business letters shed for publication.

GALLAWAY & KEATING,
J. M. GALLAWAY,
J. M. KEATING,

MEMPHIS APPEAL THURSDAY, : : FEBRUARY 8, 1883 The profer way of obtaining belief is t prove the thing asserted. Belief, however, i very commonly obtained without proof, by mere repet tion of the thing smerted. To hear every day, and from numerous sources, stout, confidentially made statements respecting some fact will -on the principle that | a case of twenty-four quarts; prices are fair "what everybody says must be true," and but the fruit must not be picked until fully that "continual dropping wears away a colored. Apricots are scarce and bring fancy stone"-move the minds of even intelligent prices. Nectarines are worth attention, they persors. People in general are not accustome, to weigh evidence or analyze state-Bonne, Flemish Beauty and Lawrence, They mer.s, therefore, upon the general mind confidmt and repeated assertion often brings that assent of the mind that should be given only when such proof as the sub- not wait until mellow. Order fruit boxes in set is capable of is supplied. Supersition time. Ship at night when it is cool. Saturand common popular errors are founded upon and common popular errors are founded upon the power of strong and reiterated assertion. This fact is largely taken advantage of by the protectionists. Their system is irrational and founded upon fallacies, and proof being wanting, assertion, continued, repeated. and audacious, is made not only in the absence of proof, but in defiance of and oppothey would do a world of good. Any toper they would do a world of good. Any toper sition to reconstruct the property of the property o sition to proof. Especially is the influence can get his "nipper" at will, but if a man who and hope he will attend the spring or an of vigorous assertion brought into play upon likes whisky as little as nur rossica, wants on the subject of workmen's wages in this coun- one of these cold mornings to get a cup of try. A Tennessee paper before us, which is hot coffee, where can be find that? We an adept at the logic of assertion, declares that protection of the home product is the only way to enhance the price of labor.

The Prussian provinces and Saxony Hesse and Nassau have been designated for the gress would remove the tax from augar and only way to enhance the price of labor.

Coffee and put it on speculative transactions. This is only one of the continued streams of Sugar and coffee do nobody any harm, but Grauldez. such unsupported statements which flow from the speculative tricks of the day do endless this paper as water from the spring. Were mischief to individuals and commerce. The the statement true it would be supported by proof, proof being wanting because the statement is false, bold, impubers the statement is dent, unblushing, unceasing assertion is re- luxury to the partaker, but a mischiel to sorted to to catch the unwary and deceive commerce and to the public interest. Tax the unreflecting. The only way to enhance it, then, and if the product of the tax fills the wage of labor, says our protectionist co- the public coffers too fast, let us bave free temporary, is by protecting the home pro- tea and sugars with our well-taxed specuduct. To enhance is to increase; and, by latiou.

implication we are to understand that to omit protection lowers, decreases. Labor is not "protected" by our tariff system, and therefore the tariff does not directly increase the price of what the laborer has to sell. though it increases the profits of the capital- ber of those calamities, if we have not be- reported, $30,738. Total, $48,570. ist by increasing the price of the product he come so thoroughly inured to them that has to sell. The increased profit goes into the hands of the capitalist, but nobody has stimulant in the early winter. Certainly no and pay as little wages as they can to the laborer, in order that their profits may be the wages rise in England when the curse of to hide and deny, is that In- by, the guerrills." bor, like other commodities, has its price regulated by demand and supply. male suffrage amendment will be held

To two complement want a workman, and only

Portland, Ore., on the 13th inst. one is to be got, the two will bid against each other whether protection exists or not, and the man's wages will be enhanced. If two men want work and only one employer is to be tound, the two will underbid each other to get employment, and no system of proin a few days, accompanied by his wife. tection will prevent it. It is not protection but supply and demand that regulates the price of labor. Our country is large, and living the terrible if he dies b fore his pay hereins. increase of population, of farms and of workshops increases the demand for labor, and therefore the amount of wages. If protection increases the demand for labor it is defined in Xenis, Ohio. Whitelaw Reid was the editor.

by extending the markets where the products of labor are sold. In this country it limits that demand by making products dear from after the Speakership; after that he wants to by extending the markets where the products taxing the raw material, and so cutting us be President. off from supplying foreign markets. and which increases every year. Riely & Co., of St. Louis, have published a pamphlet this subject, some of which we condense for that his physicians now regard his recovery ers. Not only are vast quantities of Southabout, is as to what they pack and how they pack it. Good articles, carefully put up, so 000 acres of land. as to reach the market in the best possible condition, pay best. Every grower and packer should resolve that in excellence nobody shall beat him—send away nothing that is inferior. Those exclient in the market oes received last year were from Berpacked in alat peck boxes, in July Arkansas "log-rolling" though there is money in them if gathered just when beginning to color, not left until ripe, well packed in one-third bushel boxes, and not too long on the way to market. Potatoes must be in well ventilated packages, put up close so as not to bruise. Money h lost by shipping too soon and small. Sweet potatoes do moderately well, some Seuthern yams are in demand. Asparagus when early

PUBLISHERS' ANNOUNCEMENT | Monarch, Crescent, Sharpless and Captain Jack take well, Red raspberries are too much neglected. They are grown successfully in Mississippi. The Turner is probably the firmest and best for shipping. The packing should be in pint boxes and three-gallon flat cases. The raspberry usually brings double the price of strawberries; the black raspberry is less in favor than the red. Peaches should be of early varieties. Arkansas is doing most; fine fruit sells well, and canning and especially evaporators are looming up. Cherries seem to be little grown; good, wellpacked fruit paid well last season. Damson plums are in good demand, but are neglected in the South; very fine wild goose plums come from Arkansas. Damson trees grow slow, but do not suffer from insects, and yield nearly twenty years. Quinces will pay The suthorities accept the evidence if kept well and till late. The foreign de-John Device, painter, one of the three prisoners charged with the murder of Policemas Cox. Device's evidence is very startling. mand for apples, green and evaporated, increases; only some early varieties are wanted, green, from the South, Grapes deserve nore attention than the South is giving Arkaneas growers have found them pay well; the Ives seedling, Concord and Delaware the Ives seedling, Concord and Delaware his intention of pursuing the course which produce most money; the Hartford is bad for has marked his political life. shipping. Pack in one-third-bushel boxes, RUSSIA. firm, with no stems in sight on opening BRAVE ALECK. handle little, so that the bloom may be preserved. Melons pay only where there are very favorable transit facilities. Gooseberries are neglected but they sell well. Whortleeteraburg without armed escort. berries from Arkaness sold at $3 50 to $5 for VERY CONSIDERATE, feelings excited by the crime to which th enefactor of the people fell a victim had are scarce. More pears should come from the ime to calm." South-Bartlette, Duchesse, Seckel, Louise

FIRE INQUESTS.

RECOMING CIVILIZED. are usually scarce and bring good prices. RESULT. February 7 -The Emperor Pick and pack carefully in peach boxes. Do China telegraphs his congratulations to the Crown Prince on the occasion of his silver sent by a Chinese sovereign to a European MUCH ADO ABOUT NOTHING. The Emperor is especially gratified at the acceptance by the Prince of Wales of the colonelcy of the Blucher Hussars. He an-Congress is settling tax matters just now, professedly with a view to lighten the burnounced the appointment in a very touchin autegraph letter to the prince. A deputation dens of the citizens. If they would allow the

the Emperor. MILITARY OPERATIONS.

refuted the cowardly calumny in Parlia ment. On leaving the Chamber he return BISMARCK'S HEALTH. to the ministry to hand in his resignation when he is met by several persons who ask have thoroughly disgusted him.

additional amounts have been transmitted to Europe by C. B. Richards & Co., No. 6 Broadway, for the sufferers by the Rhine is undation: From Sandu-ky, O, $5800; Keo-kuk, Ia, $1779; Tiffio, O., $1000; Believue, O., $930; German Aid Society, Hazleton Ps., $1820; Lutheran congregation, St We have certainly had fires enough and Michael's Harrisburg, Pa., $1123; Oil City, Pa., $830; Scranton, Pa., $2088; Baltimore, $1953; Sandusky, $3872. Amount previously loss of life enough in this country, this winter, to induce us to strive to reduce the num-the hands of the espitalist making it a rule to govern the amount of wages paid to the laborer by the amount of the profits they make. They add as much of their descriptions are they make. They add as much of their descriptions are the profits they make. They add as much of their descriptions are the profits they make. They add as much of their descriptions are the profits they make. They add as much of their descriptions are the profits they make. They add as much of their descriptions are the profits they make. They add as much of their descriptions are the profits they make the profits the profits the profits they make the profits the profits they make the profits th to receive it as a lesson, the fruit of which is conference here is delayed in consequence to be a law making it compulsory to hold an the non-arrival of some of the delegates." HEAVY GALES.

care and thought would become habitual. McDonald, of Indians, has gone A bottle has been found on Bourneme beach containing saloon tickets on which are Capt. Ueberweg, sailed from Antwerp February 15th, for New York. Bournemouth b ach, where the bottle had been found, is

LABOR TRAFFIC IN THE PACIFIC. Replying to a deputation descuncing the retary for the Colonies said England had gland and France would agree to respect the

IMPORTS AND EXPORTS. British imports in January increased over January last year £3,717,500. Exports in

The Federal Supreme Court decided on Monday that the Kentucky statute denying colored men the right to sit upon the jury in SALLY'S JEWELS the trial of a white man was unconstitut FALLIERES makes virtually a new Cabinet, which is expected to be gazetted Sunday night. It even said that Geo. Thebaudin, Minister of War, will be the only member of the pres REPRESENTATIVE HERNDON, of Alabama, ent ministry to remain. Legrand, forme Minister of Marine, is mentioned for Minis who was believed to be dying of consump-tion several weeks ago, is so much improved ter of Foreign Affairs. FERRY'S PLAN.

THE Philadelphia Chronicle-Herald, in forcible editorial, favora the election of United States senators by the people. The people, no doubt, would also be giad of a course, but it will probably be adopted ministry is formed under Ferry. PRINCE KRAPOTKINE ILL. It is a satisfaction to know that the decis volving the Virginia military land titles i Ohio will save from further trouble the or JEROME AS A CROW-EATER.

interests of a patient and credulous people. There is a great deal of goesip about Goy. Cleveland's habit of shaving himself, and there are people who ascribe the fact to parsimeny. Why should the governor of a State be compelled to please that class of politicians who fancy that in order to be a centionan one must meant a barbar's chair?

the separation of general legislation from appropriations and to a great extent prevent postatoes do moderately well, some Seuthern yams are in demand. Asparagus when early takes well in Chicago. Radishes, beets, early corn, etc., wilt in transit, and do not pay as well. Strawberries are very popular, the supply of good hardly equaling the demand. More money is made from them than from any other fruit, and they bring more money to the scre. Early shipments pay well; Arkaness and, particularly, Mississippi did well has season. Scarlets sold at $6 to $8, Wilson's at $9 to $11 a case. Tennessee did well, but Arkaness better. Southern Illinois, when it got to market, beat the rest; the fruit was so straight and well put up. The Wilson sells the best; the nother French Crisis Imminent-Nihi Ism Dead in Russia-Marine Disasters-General Foreign News.

A POLITICAL PLAY.

Claretie's New Comedy, "Monsieur Ministre," as Produced at the Gymnase -A Fine Performance.

DUBLIN, February 7 .- The Dublin Gaz (official) says that agrarian outrages in Ire ANOTHER INFORMER.

"Surely you will not leave me!"

"Shall we never meet again?"
"Who knows? All I sak of you

WHY GEN. STONE BESIGNED HIS OFFICE.

foreigner from Egypt has ever caused more

"It is intimated that a proposition looking to a compromise between the stockholders purchase the assets of the bank at a figur that will insure better returns to the cred

"Will you never forgive me?"

WILL PURSUE HIS OLD COURSE. Healy, presiding at the first public meeting of the National Land League, referred to his impending imprisonment, and reiterate

St. Petersburg, February 7 .- The Ru aisn police claim to have destroyed the hilists. The Czur walks the streets of The Czar's manifesto in regard to his co onation says: "We determined in our hear not to perform this sacred rite unless the

GERMANY.

American Contributions for Flood Suf-ferers.

New YORK, February 7.—The following been loss of life or not. Who makes it a matter of care, before stoves and fire places are lighted at the opening of winter, to exspect to fire? With an inquest, and its verdiet to expect if a fire were to come, such It was only possible to Isunch one boat, cor forty persons. The survivors, when rescued by a French steamer, only wore their night in Southampton county, England.

FRANCE. Panis, February 7 .- Crowds visited t

COLD WATER legislation is pending in In-dians, Ohio and Pennsylvania. Cold water floods are prevailing in the same States. Is this a warning in the disguise of a mere co-

Jules Ferry vesterday recommended the Prince Krapotkine is ill, and has been re

Prince Jerome denies that he aspires

HOMEWARD BOUND. Nice, February 7.—Northcote left for London. The Prince of Wales and Salis-bury follow Saturday, and Giadetone later. At the carnival Bigelow, an American, won

Berlin, February 7 .- Referring to "The government is right in deeming it a matter for the French people and army to consider whether they willingly accept as the highest representative of the army a general who has broken his word of honor."

the assets out of their pockets. The existing suits would then be withdrawn, and the affairs of the institution speedily closed. It is asserted that a majority of the executive committee reject the proposition."

bearing, and that it is probable they will be less telling with the audiences of succeeding Prince de Sagan, Marquis de Massa, Baron Koenigawaater, Perrin, Halanzier, etc.

POLITICS AND DOMESTICITY. The play relates the story of "M. Sulpice Vaudrey," a member of the Cabinet. He Another Chapter of the Story of the deceives his wife, "Adrienne," and when she learns of his infidelity she determines to sue Missing Mason, Morgan-The Duplicfor a judicial separation.
"Were I a mother," she says, "I should have duties to fulfill which I have not. For ity and Deceit Practiced by a son's sake I might have borne everythin

But I stand alone. All has been taken from me. I have not even a child to console me. I am a free woman, and all I owe you is my Thurlow Weed to Secure an Indorse ment of the Falsehood He Stuck name, which, depend upon it, I shall re to All His Life. spect,"
"You are right," replies "Vaudrey." "So this is our farewell. When shall you leave?"

"This evening." Changing his tone, however, "Vaudrey CINCINNATI, February 7 .- The Columbu prrespondent of the News sends that pape he following:

Miss Bertha Welby, the well-known so "It is your own fault," replies "Adrieune. "Ob, no! You cannot mean it!" cries "Vactivey."
"Sarely you have no right to destroy all strains concerning the much disputed fate of "Variery."

"Surely you have no right to destroy all the happiness of two creatures who loved and still love each other merely because one of them has been carried away by a passing associate of Thurlow Weed. To-day she fancy. I implore you, 'Adrienne,' do not go! I was so happy with you. Fool that I have related to a Times reporter her father's explanation of the origin of the Morgan been to wreck such happiness. What can difficulty, as follows: "The way he has related it to me, as pes as I can recollect, is like this: Morgan, after his announcement at Batavia that he was going to expose all the secrets of the Masonic fraternity, suddenly and mysteriously disappeared, at a time, too, when the Masonic and the anti-Masonic factions "You speak the truth," says his wife. "I would have given you the right to kill me, so has your one betrayal destroyed all my affection. I had placed you on a lofty pedestal. I took you to be upright and houest. You have been faithless. Farewell!" began to assume political importance. Nothing definite was ever heard about the John Elwood, the leading physician of Ro-chester, and a prominent Mason, who told him in a rather excited manner that he be-lieved Weed and his followers were hatching "Forgive you?" answers "Adrienne" firmly, For all that, however, she does forgive him. She relents when, just as she is about to sign the deed of separation, her husband mischief for them. He said that Weed had just dined with him, and had dwelt at some to sign the deed of separation, her husband is accused of misappropriating the funds of the state in order to be agreeable to his mistress. On this all that is womanly within her is roused and she indignanly exclaims:

'What! Shall I stand by and calmiv hear him—my husband—secused of theft! I—his helpmate—his companion—his wife?

Never will I be so base."

Turning he is more has bashed!

Turning ho.ly upon her husband's ene-mies and detractors she informs them that MORGAN'S APPEARANCE "Morgan, the last time he was seen by his she had been told all, and that she had paid her husband's debts. "It was I attached the signature which I friends, was baldheaded, and had no side-whiskers, and was known to have some pecuhad a heavy head of black hair and side-whiskers. At the inquest, however, which was controlled by the same party, it was de-clared that the dead man was William Mortion, to the document which saved my hus-band's honor," she says, "and I will continue to bear that name now that it is insulted." With that size tears up the deed, and her friend "Lissac" exclaims:
"Did I not tell you that you loved your husband? Ah, you are like the rest of your sex. A tear suffices to make you pardon Meanwhile "Vaudrey" bas triumphantly investigation. In company with Ebenezer Griffin, Dr. Elwood and a number of lead-"Crosses," says he. "I have done with them. Hepceforth I shall neither give away any nor, I trust, have any to besr."

The dishonesty and cynicism of politics CAIRO, January 8.—The departure of no regret among the foreign and native residents of Cairo than that of Gen. Charles P.

dents of Cairo than that of Gen. Charles P. Stone, who for twelve years has served Egypt with a fidelity rarely to be seen in the Orient. Last Thursday evening a farewell banquet was given to the general by the members of the Egyptian Geographical Society, of which he was president. Two ex-prime ministers—Nobar and Riez Pashas—were present, as well as over fifty other paches, beys and officials of lesser mignitude. In accepting Gen. Stone's resignation both the Khedive and the premier—Chril Pasha—addressed to him letters written in exceptionally complimentary terms.

Timothy Monroe, a fisherma were those of Timothy Monroe, a fisherma on During all this time the body had been under the commander in which they had mutilated it was well calculated to deceive. But the wife's destinous was conclusive.

Good Enotics worden worden were those of Timothy Monroe, a fisherma on During all this time the body had been under the commander in which they had mutilated it was well calculated to deceive. But the wife's destinous was conclusive.

Good Enotics worden worden with this time the body had been under the commander in which they had mutilated it was well calculated to deceive. But the wife's destinous was conclusive.

When this result was reached Mr. Griffin turned to Weed and saked, in a rather tanget on the premier—Chril Pasha—addressed to him letters written in exceptionally complete the property of the premier with the control of Weed and his partisens, and the manner in which they had mutilated it was well calculated to deceive. But the wife's destinous was conclusive.

When this result was reached Mr. Griffin turned to Weed and saked, in a rather tanget of the premier with the remains of the control of Weed and his partisens, and the premier was conclusive.

is that he is convinced that Egypt—in spite of all England's protestations to the confrary—has become virtually a British province, and that all hope has now vanished of ever building up an independent Egypt under a successor of Mehemet Ali.

Fortunately for England Gen. Stone and the staff officers whom he had educated were thoroughly loyal to the Khedive. They gave no assistance in any way to Arabi, and the result was that Sir Garnet Wolseley had only to encounter an army with only a body and legs, but without any head. Gen. Stone is of opinion that if Arabi Pasha had had any "gumptioo," to say nothing of military ca.

"gumptioo," to say nothing of military ca.

"gumptioo," to say nothing of military ca.

"gumptioo," to say nothing of military ca. telegraph over which a public message was sent. He accumulated a large fortune, but lost it nearly all through disastrous business of papers, maps and documents was broken open by British soldiers and the contents de-"Is there any truth in the claim made by Weed that he repaid your father for his bit-terness toward him by obtaining a position for him in the custombouse?" officers while engaged upon reconnoisance "Yes; under these circumstances: Weed was very sick, and he thought he must seen on Twelfth street, on urgent business. Father went and found Weed confined to his bed, propped up with pillows. He told father that he had heard of his reverses, and said he would like to do something for him, in reparation for the bitter wrongs he had done nim when they were both young men, and the Spiritual Alliance, held at No. 55 West Thirtieth street, Mr. A. A. Wood exhibited what he pronounced to be "the crowning triumph of Spiritualism"—two plaster casts of the human hand, alleged to have been molded from the members of materialized spirits in the seclusion of a medium's cabinet. They looked very natural indeed. One was the left hand, apparently, of an aged person of large frame and broken health. Mr. Wood said he recognized it as the hand of a deceased relative, and he had asked for the customhouse that he could procurs for bim. The proffered position father took. The two men were friends from that time on. In about two years Weed sgain sent for father, who went to him. After he had been seated by his bedside for some time, Weed told bim that he was very anxious to publish his autobiog-raphy, which had been written by his daugh-had prepared in great detail. Among them were papers that placed Weed in a most disagreeable light. He knew that if he could not get father's promise to suppress these facts, his contemplated book would be ! bitterly assailed and the old fight renewed. Father refused to grant his request, and he save in spots, all the markings of the skip were perfect. The wrinkles of age in the larger hand, the perfect lines of pabilise in the smaller one, were alike brought out with an exacting that seemed beyond art. Mr. Wood argued that they could not have been taken from a living medal as the art. Mr. Wood argued that they could not have been taken from a living model, as the hand could not be withdrawn from a mold without cutting or breaking it, while these casts exhibited none of the sharp ridges com-simply asserted that they were the work of spirits; that they could not have been humally produced, and challenged his hearers to suggest a possible method. He had shown will be as long as father is alive and those records in existence. At father's death they will come into my possession and I will see will see as long as father is alive and those records in existence. At father's death they will come into my possession and I will see them to a firm of molders, who said they could not imitate them. Mr. Wood explained that the molds were produced with a pan of paraffine wax and a yessel of water. "The process," he said, "is that the materialized spirit hard is dipped alternately in the hot paraffine and the cold water until a thick crust is formed, just as a dip-candle is made.

Then the hand is spiritualized and the mold remains empty. A living hand would be melted away by the boiling wax. I took home the two that we found in the cabinet, pouced planter paris into them and of the paris into them.

PERSONAL MENTION.

PERSONAL MENTION.

A MARBLE bust of Cardinal McCloskey ha just been finished by Robert Cushing. THE works of George W. Cable, the New GEN. GRANT can no more know one tun

FRIENDS of Gen. Fitz John Porter seem JOHN McLEAN says he has not hought the LIEUT, FLIPPER, who stole the money and maky brigadier among the greasers. MANY a male brute who snarls and growle the lungs, and if not promptly treated lrequently develops a tendency to a tuberculous condition. To avoid this danger, those troubled with colds should resort at once to Dr. Jayne's Expectorant, which soon loosens and eradicates coughs, soothes and heals inflamed parts, and removes all anxiety by setting the patient on the way to good health once more.

Texas.

Colonado has ceased to be the refuge of the Eastern absconder. Arizona is now the fashionable retiring place of good men who have "gone wrong."

EWALD, the great German scholar, once said to Dean Stanley as he picked up a New Testament, "In this book is contained all

Testament, "In this book is contained all the wisdom of the world." Editor Medill's Condition EUGENE PLUMACHER, formerly of Nash-COUNT YON MOLTKE said of the late Gen. Chanzy that he was "one of the few generals of the day capable of commanding an srmy of 200,000 men without losing their heads." WHILE the Kentucky soldiers are at Grayeon protecting Neal and Craft, the army of coloneis on the governor's staff will remain at home under the protection of their

THE Darwin memorial subscription has awakened an embusissm in Sweden that for family use. They are pleasant, sale and England herself is finding it hard to paral-sure, and excel all other pitts in healing and forward, in that country, with sums varying from four cents to $10. The United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland has thus far produced only about 600 subscribers. THE Rev. Hugh Miller Thompson, D.D. of New Orleans, will be consecrated assistant bishop of Mississippi on the 24th instant. Bishop Wilmer, of Alabama, will preach the ecration eermon. FROM the Natchez Democrat we learn tha Gen. W. T. Martin, president of the "Little J.," will make Capt. Bowie, freight conductor, a wooden substitute for the leg he lost by an cident on the road. NEW YORK has a newspaper called the Chinese-American, which is said to be very able and entertaining, but those who cannot readily translate tea box inscriptions do not find the time to read it. WILLIAM H. HERNDON, Abraham Lincoln's law-pariner, in a recent letter, says: W knew Mr. Lincoln well for twenty-five severest thinker in America." A HERNANDO county, Fis., farmer made barrels of molasses, ten barrels of sugar, and sold 30,000 stalks of seed-cane. A STRANGE thing occurred at Fort Worth, Tex., last Friday. Two well-known cattle men disagreed about a game of poker. The strange thing is that eight shots were exhanged without causing a funeral. It isn't a very high compliment to the good morals of Chaltanooga to say that the city police make more arrests for drunkenother day in the week, but such is the fact.

A DEPUTY marshal at Independence, Mo., was dismissed from office by the jodge for allowing Frank James, who was in his charge, to accompany him to the theater. That judge is too blankty blank particular.

A PARH entirely from the government emigration, a large number, probably not less than 60,000 or 70,000 people, will leave the shore of Ireland next year. Of these the largest proportion will make the United States their home.

It is a signular coincidence that the fact.

A DEPUTY marshal at Independence, Mo., and had no hesitation in speaking of the terrors that had driven him from his former home. The visitor represented himself as desirous of renting the house formerly occupied by Mr. Reynolds, and asked what its desirable qualities were. Mr. Reynolds, an intelligent-looking young man of about thirty years, opened widehis eyes as he shot out the query:

"You want to live in that house?"

"Certainly. Why not?" ness and other crimes on Sanday than any other day in the week, but such is the fact. missing man. About a year after that the remains of a man were found on the shere of Lake Ontario. One day father was sitting in his office quietly meditating, when he received a rather unexpected card from Dr.

APART entirely from the government emigration, a large number, probably not less gration, a large number, probably not less States their home.

It is a singular coincidence that to his death Mr. Authony Trollope had just reached the legal limit of life in Britannula, the fictitious colony which was the scene of his strange story, The Fixed Period.

It is reported upon trustworthy authority that Judge Longworth will soon resign his position as a member of the Supreme Court of Ohio. Indeed, it is stated that the reaignation will be tendered next Thursday, to take effect the middle of next month.

John Rogers is now engaged in executing an equestrian statue of Gen. John F. Rey-JOHN ROGERS is now engaged in executing an equestrian statue of Gen. John F. Rey-nolds, toward the fund for which the State whiskers. At the inquest, however, which was controlled by the same party, it was declared that the dead man was William Morgan. His remains were interred. That evening Weed met Dr. Elwood at the Esgle Hotel, in Rochester, and asked him for a description of Morgan. The doctor had known him very well, and imprudently complied with this request.

THE DECEPTION EXPOSED.

"Hearing of the result of this inquest, father and his friends determined upon an investigation. In company with Ebenezer Griffin Dr. Elwood and a number of lead."

The Deception of Morgan and infinitely organization, was aroused a few nights ago by the sound as of burglars in the house. He instantly seized a shotgun, and, cocking both barrels, called out in thunder tones: "Halt! who goes there?" "Dou't be scared, papa; I won't do nuffin to you, I want a dwink," piped an investigation. In company with Ebenezer Griffin Dr. Elwood and a number of lead. infantile voice.

Griffin, Dr. Elwood and a number of leading Masons, they went to Oak Orchard by stage-coach. Weed and a number of his friends were also present. The body was removed from the grave and an examination of it made. To the astonishment of sil but Weed and his adherents, it was found that the top of the dead man's head had been shaved, and his face arranged in exact imitation of the description of Morgan given tation of the description of Morgan given Weed by Dr. Elwood. Several witnesses were summoned, and it was proven beyond we have freedom of sneech and liberty of looking cautiously round, approached him and hissed in his ear:

"I have heard them," and, falling back a slep or two, complicently watched the effect of the startling information. "Heard them. But how do you know it was spirits you heard, and not a street-car, or a baby or a sewing-machine?"

"Do I look like a man who could mistake a ghost for anything else? I tell you the we have freedom of sneech and liberty of called out, "No, no, don't waste him; kill a shawed, and his face arranged in exect imitation of the description of Morgan given Weed by Dr. Elwood. Several witnesses were summoned, and it was proven, beyond a doubt, that the remains were those of Timothy Monros, a fisherman. During all this time the body had been under the control of Weed and his partisons, and the manner in which they had mutitated it was well calculated to deceive. But the wife's testimony was conclusive.

Good exough Morgan row him.

"Whea this result was resched Mr. Griffin turned to Weed and asked, in a rather tanger now?" Turning around quickly, Weed said. This is a good enough Morgan for us until after the election. Father at once caught him up and took him to task for his expression. Had not task for his expression that had tasked in the exist had not task for his expression. Had not task for his expres careful medical attendance. The work is not excessive, and they are not brutally treated. The men were in good condition on my revolver. Last night came the climax, and healthy, and smiled as he passed among them. There was no sulienness of looks.

from Hops, Malt. Buchu, Man rative properties of all other remedies, being the greatest liver regulator, blood purifier, and life and health restoring agent on earth.

It gives new life and vigor to the aged and infirm. To clergymen, lawyers, literary men. ladies, and all whom sedentary employments cause irregularities of the Blood, Stomach, Eowels or Kidneys, or who require an annetizer tonic and mild stimulant it is in. ach, Bowels or Kidneys, or who require an appetizer, tonic and mild stimulant, it is invaluable, being highly curative, tonic and stimulanting, without being intoxicating.

No matter what your feelings or symptoms are, or what the disease or ailment is, use Hop Bitters.

Don't wait until you are sick, but if you only kel bad or miserable use the Bitters at once. It may save your life, Hundreds have been saved by so doing, at a moderate cost. Ask your druggist or physician. Do not suffer yourself or let your friends suffer, but use and urge them to use Hop Bitters.

Hop Bitters.

and all was still—so still that I seemed to feel the silence settling down on me. I searched the from with outstretched hands, hoping to find something—some one. Then the property of the room was myself. As I struck the light in the dining-room the rapping noise commenced out in the hall. A search there revealed nothing. And so the rapping, was kept up all night."

"Were the noises loud?"

"Were the noises loud?"

"Well, I should say so. About as loud as this," and the intimate friend of departed spirits seized a hammer and beat horribly upon the resounding counter.

St. Louis, February 7.—A temporary in-question was granted Fred Vonthur, proprie-or of a "bucket-shop," against the Western enspired with certain brokers to establish a their customers, in the shape of holiday greetings, the December profits, together with full statement of their fund W, which has

You will find Mrs. Winslow's Soothing You will not are. Windows Cooling Syrup an invaluable friend. It curse dysentery and diarrhes, regulates the stomach and bowels, cures wind colic, softens the guns, reduces infiamms, mation and gives tone and energy to the whole system. In almost every instance where the infant is suffering during the teething period from pain and exhaustion relief will be found in fifteen or twenty minutes after the Soothing Syrup has been administered. Do not fall to procure it. Price 25 cents a bottle. For sale everywhere.

In distinctness. Sae, the feminine voice, I mean, would appear to plead, the whispering in mountful cadence, in mean, would appear to plead, the whispering requesting and falling in mountful cadence, broken by the coarser tones of the male about the person. Expose the Finish about in eartherway plates or sancers. Use in the water for bathing, for gargling the throat, washing out the mouth and sometimes taking a few drops of Darby Prophylectic Finish on their face and hands.

"Marcy?" Fell Dead at a Wedding. LASALLE, ILL., February 7 .- Last nigh

while officiating at a marriage, the Rev. George F. Bronson, paster of the Congregational church of this city, fell dead at the feet of a couple just as he pronounced them husband and wife.

"MERCY!"

the Word Spoken by a Spook Who With Another Traveler from the Spirit Land, Has Made a Suug, Cosy Chicago Home so Uncomfortable as to Almost Drive Its Occupants Crazy.

The Chicago Times publishes the following touching the now notoriously haunted house 437 West Van Buren street, in that city: "Yes, haunted. Ghosts, spooks and spirit hold high carolval day and night in that asme house. Take my advice and keep away from it."

"How long has it been haunted?"
"Heaven only knows; I am sure I do not. I only know that there are nightly-ye and daily-mysterious manifestations in the and daily—mysterious manifestations in the house, and no tenant ever remains there any length of time. Why, the present occupants are moving out to-day, and say no amount of money would tempt them to remain another night in that den of horrors."

"Where did you say it was located?"

"No. 437 West Van Buren street."

Mr. Reynolds was found at his store, a meat market, No. 668 West Madison street, and had no hesitation in speaking of the ter-believe none after me will be found, willing to remain in that abode of the infernal sp its for as long a time."

"Abode of infernal spirits?"

"Yes, infernal spirits—spooks, ghosts, demons, devils—call them what you will.

They infest eve. 1 nook and corner, every would make me get up. Hardly had I said this when the usual heavy steps came tramping. THE PUREST AND BEST

THE PUREST AND BEST

Exemply Ever Made—It is Compounded.

through what agency the noise came. As she stepped out of bed the door of our apart ment flew open—opened by invisible hands. Mrs. Reynolds concluded that the time was

"Mercy?"
"Yes, that was the only distinct word that we have ever heard. Sometimes the whis-pering would appear close at hand, and then would come less distinctly, as though the spirits were moving away."

"Are you a Spiritualist?" was asked of Mr. Revnolds.

Reynolds.
"No, sir; I am a Methodist."
"How do you account for what you have leard?"

ROYAL RAKING POWDER

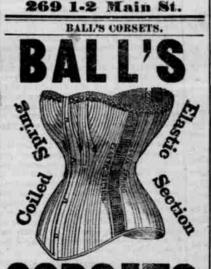

Absolutely Pure.

TUTT'S EXPECTORANT

ACT DIRECTLY ON THE LIVER Cures Chills and Fever, Dyapepais Sick Headache, Billous Colle, Constipa tion, Rheumatism, Piles, Palpitation of the Heart, Dizziness, Torpid Liver, and Female Irregularities. If you do not "fe-very well," a single pill stimulates the stomic restoration arrestic, in particular to the stomic

COSTUMER. SAMUEL MAY

Costumer,

CORSETS

the "most comfortains and person little, conmade."
PRICES, by Mail, Postage Paid:
Health Preserving, 61.50. Self-Adjusting, 61.50
Abdominal (extra heavy) 82.00. Nursing, 61.50
Health Preserving (fine coutif) 62.00. Paragen Skirt-Supporting, 61.50.

Per sale by leading Retail Bealers everywhere.
CHICAGO CORSET CO., Chicago, IL.
MENKEN BROTHEEN, Agenta, Memphis

AND CIGARS. 322 Front St.,

tween Monroe and Union. Memphi

PROPHYLACTIC FLUID. DARBYS

Pox, Yellow-Fever, Malaria, Etc.

Darbys Prophylactic Fluid CERTAIN REMEDY AGAINST ALI

J. H. ZEILIN & CO., Proprietors, Manufacturing Chemists, PHILABELPHIA.
Price 30 cents per bottle. Pint bottes, E THIS PAPER FILE AT GEO

THE FIRM OF INAAC PRIEDMAN & CO. WAS THIS DAY DISSOLVED BY mutual consent. The Books and Accounts will be found in the office of our Sucressor, MARKS

JOBBERS OF

304 MAIN ST., MEMPHIS, TENN.

Nos. 356 and 258 Front Street, Memphis, Tennessee STEWART, BROTHERS & CO., Cotton Factors and Commission Merchants

Wholesale Grocers, Cotton Factors,

NEW ORLEANS, LOUISIANA. W.A.GAGE & BRO. COTTON FACTORS

No. 300 Front street, - - - Memphis, Tenn. Woodruff & Co.

Cypress, Poplar, Cottonwood, Walnut, Oak and Ash

Blinds, Moldings, and Building Material Generally SAW AND PLANING MILLS, O. H. Myers Manager. Membhis. Tenn

Cotton Factors. No. 286 Front St., ONE DOOR NORTH OF | Memphis, Tennessee

A Superphosphate of the First-Class, well adapted to all Crops, Corn and Cotton, particularly which make Fruit through Summer.

PURE COTTON-SEED MEAL

ACID PHOSPHATE FOR COMPOSTING.

DESOTO OIL CO.

CYCLOPEDIA OF LIVE-STOCK And Complete STOCK DOCTOR!

Fulmer, Thornton & Co. Cotton Factors, Wholesale Grocers

Wines, Liquors, ANDERSON

DOORS, SASH, BLINDS, MOLDING, LUMBER Lath and Shingles, Flooring, Ceiling, and Cedar Posts,

Cotton Factors, Com. Merchants,

AGENTS FOR THE STAR COTTON GIN. 336 Front street, cor. Union. Mamphis, Tens J. B. ALDRICH & CO., Agents, Eldredge Sewing-Machines.

Needler, Oils, Parts, Attachments, and Repairs for all Machines, Wholesale Grocers and Cotton Factors No. 13 UNION STREET, MEMPHIS, TENN.

M. GAVIN&CO. Wholesaie Grocers, Cotton Factors,

As d Commission Merchants, 232 and 234 Front St., Memphis, Tenn.

his whole time to the Weighing and hale of all type (Cotton Warengam, 26 Warten ompetition with the multitude of low-test, short eight, alum or phosphate powders. Solid only in cass. BOYAL BAKING POWDER CO., New York. TUTT'S LIVER PILLS.

TUTT'S

restores the appelite, imports visor to the system.

A NOTED DIVINE SAYS:

Da. Turn:—Dear Sir: For ten years I have been a martyr to Dyspepsis, Constipation and Files. Last spring your pills were recommended to me; I used them (but with little faith). I am now a well man, have good appetite, digostion perfect, regular stools, piles gone, and I have gained forty pounds solid flesh. They are worth their weight in gold.

REV.R. L. SIMPSON, Louisville, Ky.

Office, 35 Murray St., New York.

(DE. TUTTES MANUA) Useful

Laccipta FREE on appl 'm.

room. A shovel was kicked about the room as though the imps were playing foot-bas with it. Then came the most outrageou clatter and clamor that has ever beset m sounding through the house. This terrific elamming would continue for ten minutes and suddenly stop. One night the stove in with testimonials of great cures, but ask your neighbor, druggist, pastor or physician what Hop Eitters has and can do for you my wife insisted on going to see for hered awful specter was not waiting to carry him principally?"

"Generally at night, though as I said, the were likely to commence at any hour, day or night. During the day the bell would ring